

The IDAHO FIDDLER

Published by the
IDAHO OLD TIME FIDDLERS ASSOCIATION
at Weiser, Idaho 83672

APRIL 2006 - VOL. 43 NO. 4

ISSN 0279-9049

District 1A

Young fiddlers help with the entertainment at Western Pleasure

District 1A is still doing their thing up here in the north. Those playing for the E.C.F. Wing of Boundary Community Hospital in March were the following: Janet, Zane and James Sapp, Jim and Sonja McCalmant, Barry Coleman, Eleanor Erickson, Ruth Hoglan, Earl Stephens, Lorna Lounsbury (our member who spends half her time in Alaska), Bob Dudley, visitor from Montana and Doris Howard. A great group to play with. Irish tunes were part of our program.

We had a large group show up at our jam held at the Western Pleasure Guest Ranch with 88 signing the sign-up sheet. Nineteen were musicians: Roly, Danielle and Issac Schoonovers, Lee Jackson, Walt Murray, Brad Ynek and his daughter, Heather, Mickey Jacobson, Brad Smith, Ruth Hoglan, Janet Sapp, Earl Stephens, Barry Coleman, Jim and Sonja McCalmant, Ruby and Rachel O'Connor, Cindy Paulsgrove and of course me, Doris Howard.

We had five new beginners playing with us. Ruby and Rachel O'Connor, Cindy Paulsgrove, Sonja McCalmant and little Heather Ynek, the three or four year old, they are all doing very well. Give our four year old a few more years and she will make us all sit up and take notice.

I would like to remind all of District 1A we are not to arrive at Western Pleasure before 1:30 p.m. on our Sunday as they have other guests that have rented ahead of us that need time to leave before we start moving in. Okay? Thanks.

I would also like to remind all our members, we are a family, please try and treat each other as such. To expect harmony in our group, we must respect this. We don't have reserved spots to stand to play. If someone sets up ahead of us, please don't expect them to move for us. There's room for all of us in any room.

In closing, remember, "You can never win simply by trying to even the score."

—Doris Howard

May 5-6 — State Jam at Hoot's in Whitebird.

